

Special rate on City Hall compound fines

KUALA LUMPUR: Kuala Lumpur City Hall is offering special rates on compounds for traffic and general offences in conjunction with the Federal Territory Day celebrations.

In a post on its Facebook, it said the special compound rates will be offered until Feb 29 and are only for Malaysians.

It said the special rates include compounds for parking offences, which is RM10 for motorcycles, RM20 for cars, multi-purpose vehicles and small lorries, and RM50 for buses and lorries, while for hawking offences, it is RM100.

According to the post, the special rates do not apply for offenders on its blacklist and general cases, including offences under the Transportation of Materials (Federal Territory of Kuala Lumpur) By-law 1997, Wholesale Market (Federal Territory of Kuala Lumpur) By-Law 2002, Licensing of Trades, Businesses and Industries (Federal Territory of Kuala Lumpur) By-Law 2016 and Licensing of Hawkers (Federal Territory of Kuala Lumpur) By-Law 2016.

Also included are offences under the Hotel Act 2003, Entertainment Act 1992 and the Planning Act 1982, as well as offences related to building approval under the Roads, Drains and Buildings Act 1974.

The public can make the payment through the Pay@KL app. – Bernama
