City Hall rolls out new traffic compound rates

KUALA LUMPUR: The Kuala Lumpur City Hall (DBKL) will enforce new compound rates for traffic offences under the Road Transport Act 1987 and its subsidiary legislation starting tomorrow.

DBKL, in a statement yesterday, announced that the compound rates for the motorcycle category were RM30 for payments made within one to 15 days, RM50 (16 to 30 days) and RM80 (31 to 60 days).

For car offences, the compound rates were RM50 for payments made within one to 15 days, RM80 (16 to 30 days) and RM100 (31 to 60 days).

For heavy vehicles, the compound rates were RM200 for payments made within one to 15 days, RM250 (16 to 30 days) and RM300 (31 to 60 days). Bernama
