

Fun in the city

STAR
2/2/89

EACH student took a metre or so, the first one at the entrance to Jalan Raja Laut and the last one at the entrance to Jalan Parlimen. Together, the 500 art students from colleges within Kuala Lumpur managed to complete the 300m-long painting in less than four hours yesterday. It is believed to be the longest painting in the world.

The event, with the theme Kuala Lumpur Indah, was part of the City Day celebrations.

There were also a magic show, a performance by the Kuala Lumpur Orchestra, photography exhibition, an art competition for children, a colourful cultural show and more, held in various parts of the city.

The day of fun began at 7.30am with a fishing contest.

● SEE PAGE TWO