

1

1 A Health Ministry van driver waiting at the Masjid Kampung Baru compound for residents to be taken for Covid-19 screening. PIC BY ASYRAF HAMZAH

2 A resident of Kampung Paya Jaras in Selangor taking a packet of cucumbers hanging on the gate, one of many donated by the public in view of the Movement Control Order. PIC BY FATHIL ASRI

3 Health Ministry frontliners carrying out checks at the Selangor Mansion and Malayan Mansion flats in Jalan Masjid India, Kuala Lumpur. PIC BY ASWADI ALIAS

4 Health Ministry personnel carrying out house-to-house active case detection in the Kampung Baru area to identify residents with Covid-19 symptoms. PIC BY ASYRAF HAMZAH

5 Tailor Noraini Jinal, 48, sitting on the front steps of her house in Kampung Pulau Gajah, Kelantan, while sewing a pair of baju kurung. PIC BY SHARUL HAFIZ ZAM

2

3

4

5

6

7

6 A 1.5km-long traffic congestion along Jalan Sungai Buloh-Kuala Selangor despite the Movement Control Order imposed by the government. PIC BY FATHIL ASRI

7 Malaysians working in Singapore walking across the Johor-Singapore Causeway ahead of the one-month lockdown in the island republic. BERNAMA PIC

8

8 Salmah Tawang, 63, and Aweng Mamat, 58, sun drying 'keropok keping' in Kampung Baru, Seberang Takir, Terengganu. Business has been good for the couple during the Movement Control Order period. PIC BY GHAZALI KORI

9

9 Business is slow at Pasar Khadijah in Kota Baru following the Movement Control Order enforced by the government. PIC BY NIK ABDULLAH NIK OMAR [KHIS]