

Reading them right

City Hall has come up with numerous mega projects in the past, most of which have not gone down well with city folk. However, with the Kuala Lumpur Library, DBKL has finally given the people something that they can truly appreciate.

This man is not reading a book in the living room of his home. The area is actually part of the RM30mil Kuala Lumpur Library in Jalan Raja.