Low-cost flats a hit

The apartment complex, to be jointly developed by Kuala Lumpur City Hall and Pancaran Nilai Sdn Bhd, costs RM40,000 a unit and is based upon the build and sell concept.

The units have been booked by the public, mostly residents of the Setapak long house.
